Rock icon Neil Young is hitting the road for his first solo concerts in many years on the Twisted Road tour, which rolls into UT Texas Performing Arts' Bass Concert Hall on Saturday, June 5 at 8:00 p.m. This very special evening will feature Young performing his classic songs along with brand new, as yet unrecorded tunes for the first time. British folk legend Bert Jansch will open the show.

Tickets for Neil Young go on sale Friday, April 9 at noon at the following authorized ticket outlets, which include the Bass Concert Hall ticket office, most H-E-B stores and all Texas Box Office outlets, online at www.TexasPerformingArts.org, or by calling (512) 477-6060 or (800) 982-BEVO.

Reprise Records will release the concert film Neil Young Trunk Show on Blu-Ray and DVD later this year. The film is the second in director Jonathan Demme's planned trilogy about the legendary rocker. Demme also directed the 2006 Young documentary Heart of Gold. Following that film's premiere at the Toronto International Film Festival, Rolling Stone called it "an unconscious, raw, in-the-moment concert movie that respects the immediacy of creativity and the creator." Theatrical screenings are being held across the country this week.
